

Strategic Planning for Nonprofits; Nonprofit Information

Depending on the size of your group, a strategic plan can actually be a fairly simple process. The most important thing is to create a plan that will be used. Follow these steps for a “quick” version of strategic planning that will get your group headed in the right direction.

Five Good Ideas about Strategic Planning; Maytree

How can we make strategic planning more effective with better processes and better outcomes? This resource looks at 5 key ideas around effective strategic planning.

Developing Strategic and Action Plans; Community Tool Box

This toolkit aids in developing a vision, mission, objectives, strategies, and action plan. This resource provides a step-by-step outline of what is needed in a strategic plan as well as successful examples from organizations around the world.

Strategic Planning Course; Charity Village

This 2 hour online course from Charity Village explains how strategic planning will help your organization; describes the core elements; clarifies the process; and helps you select the best tools and techniques for your situation. This course does cost.

Strategic Planning for Nonprofits; SaskCulture

Planning is not something that your organization can afford to ignore or postpone. Planning is one of the most important responsibilities of any nonprofit in its capacity of serving the public. Through the planning process, an organization can ask the following: where are we now; where do we want to be; how can we get there; how will we do all this; and how will we know how successful we are?